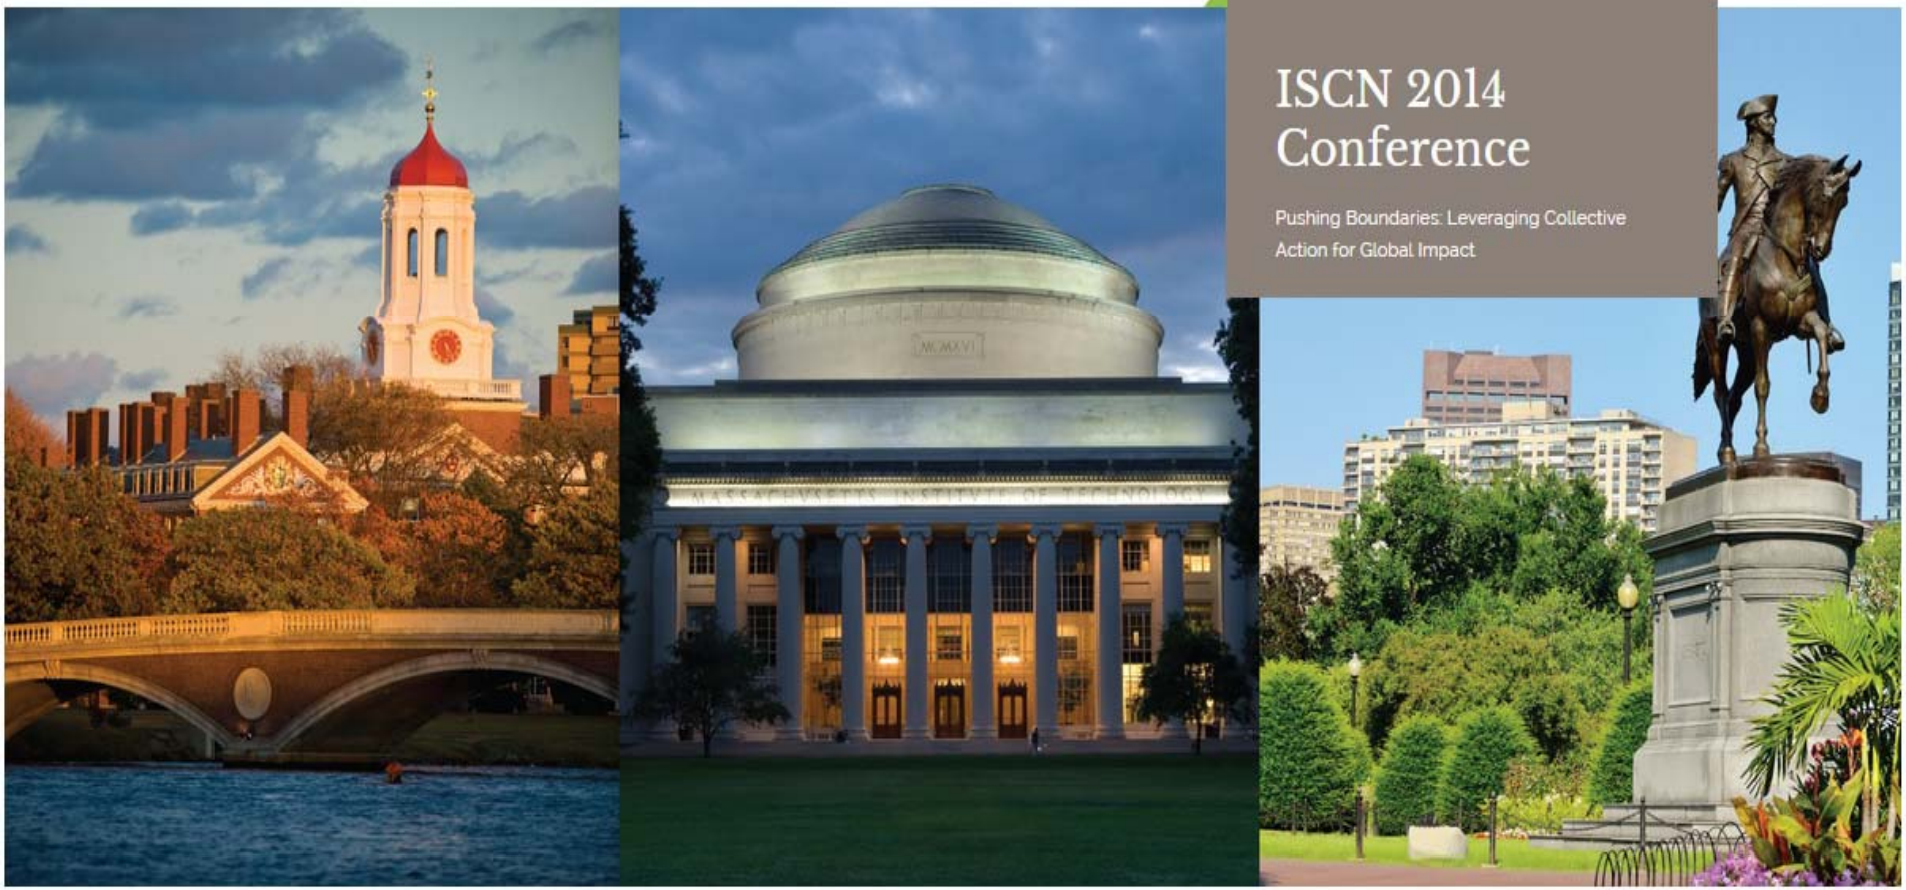
Reflection and Implementation from ISCN 2014:
Case Study Thammasat

Prinya Thaewanarumitkul,
Vice Rector for Student Affairs and Learning,
Thammasat University



ISCN 2014 Conference

Pushing Boundaries: Leveraging Collective Action for Global Impact

ISCN International Sustainable Campus Network

HARVARD UNIVERSITY

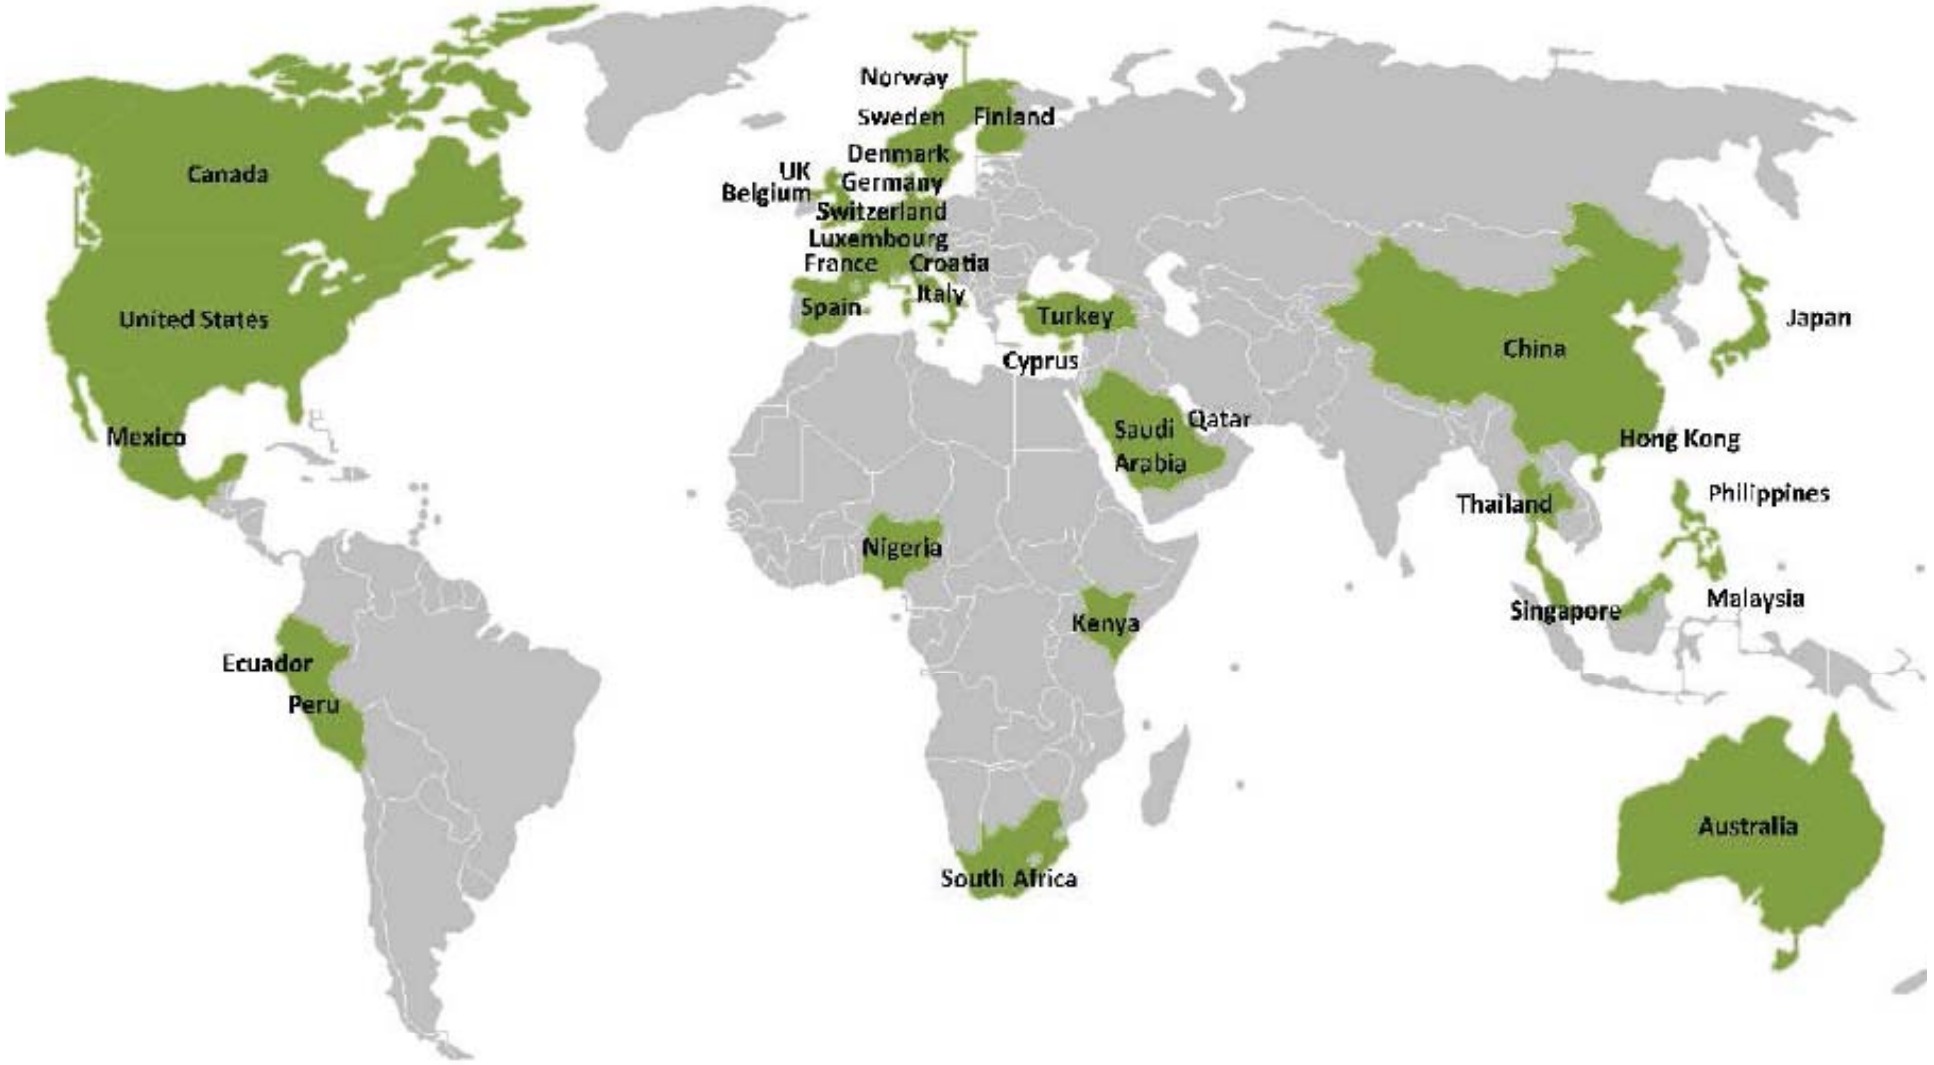
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Cambridge, MA | June 1–4, 2014

Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) are pleased to partner and co-host the 2014 ISCN conference, Pushing Boundaries: Leveraging Collective Action for Global Impact.

"Pushing Boundaries:

Leveraging Collective Action for Global Impact"



ISCN 2014 Conference

129 Participants | 76 Universities | 34 Countries | 6 Continents

ISCN Members Only Summit

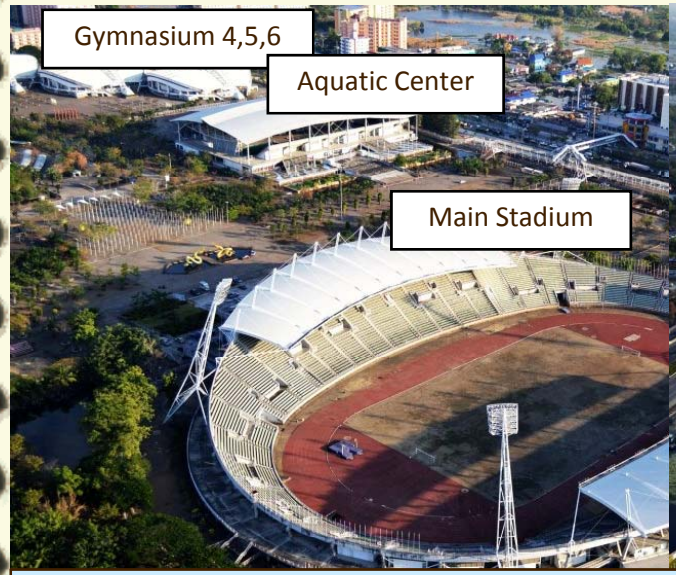
Networking

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
9 Strategies in 3 Years (2014 – 2017)

Action Plan to "Sustainable Campus":

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(1) Energy Savings and Energy Supply

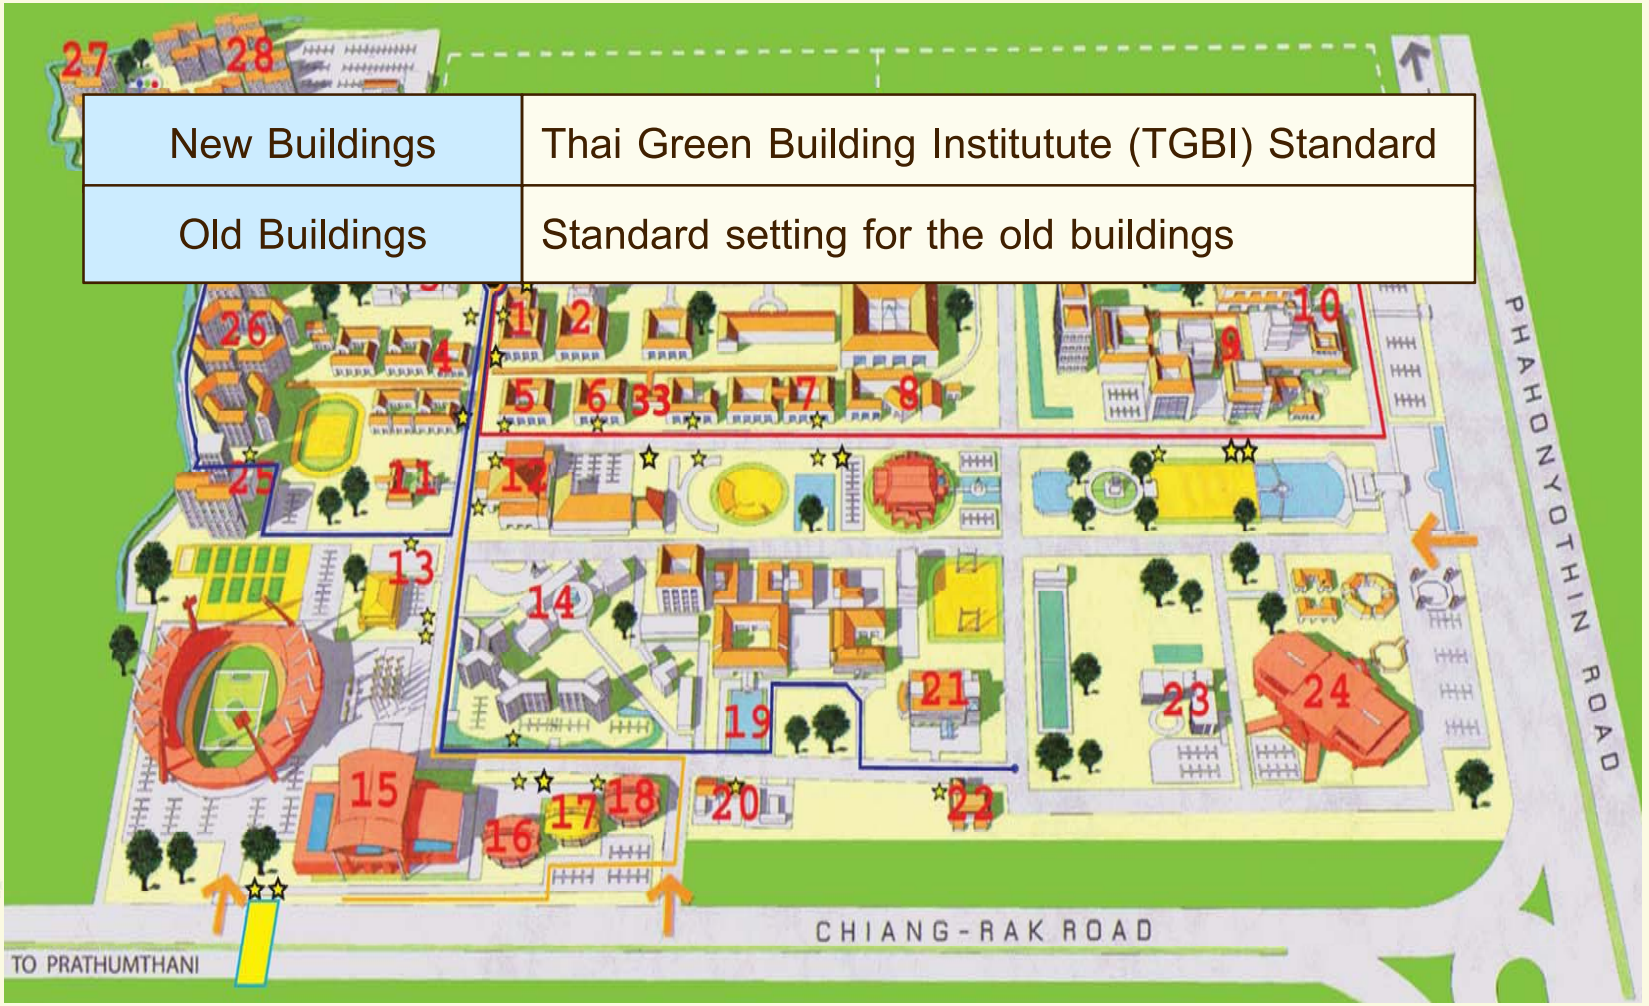
Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(1) Energy Savings and Energy Supply



Estimate total roof area : 184,070 Sq.m.

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(2) Green Buildings

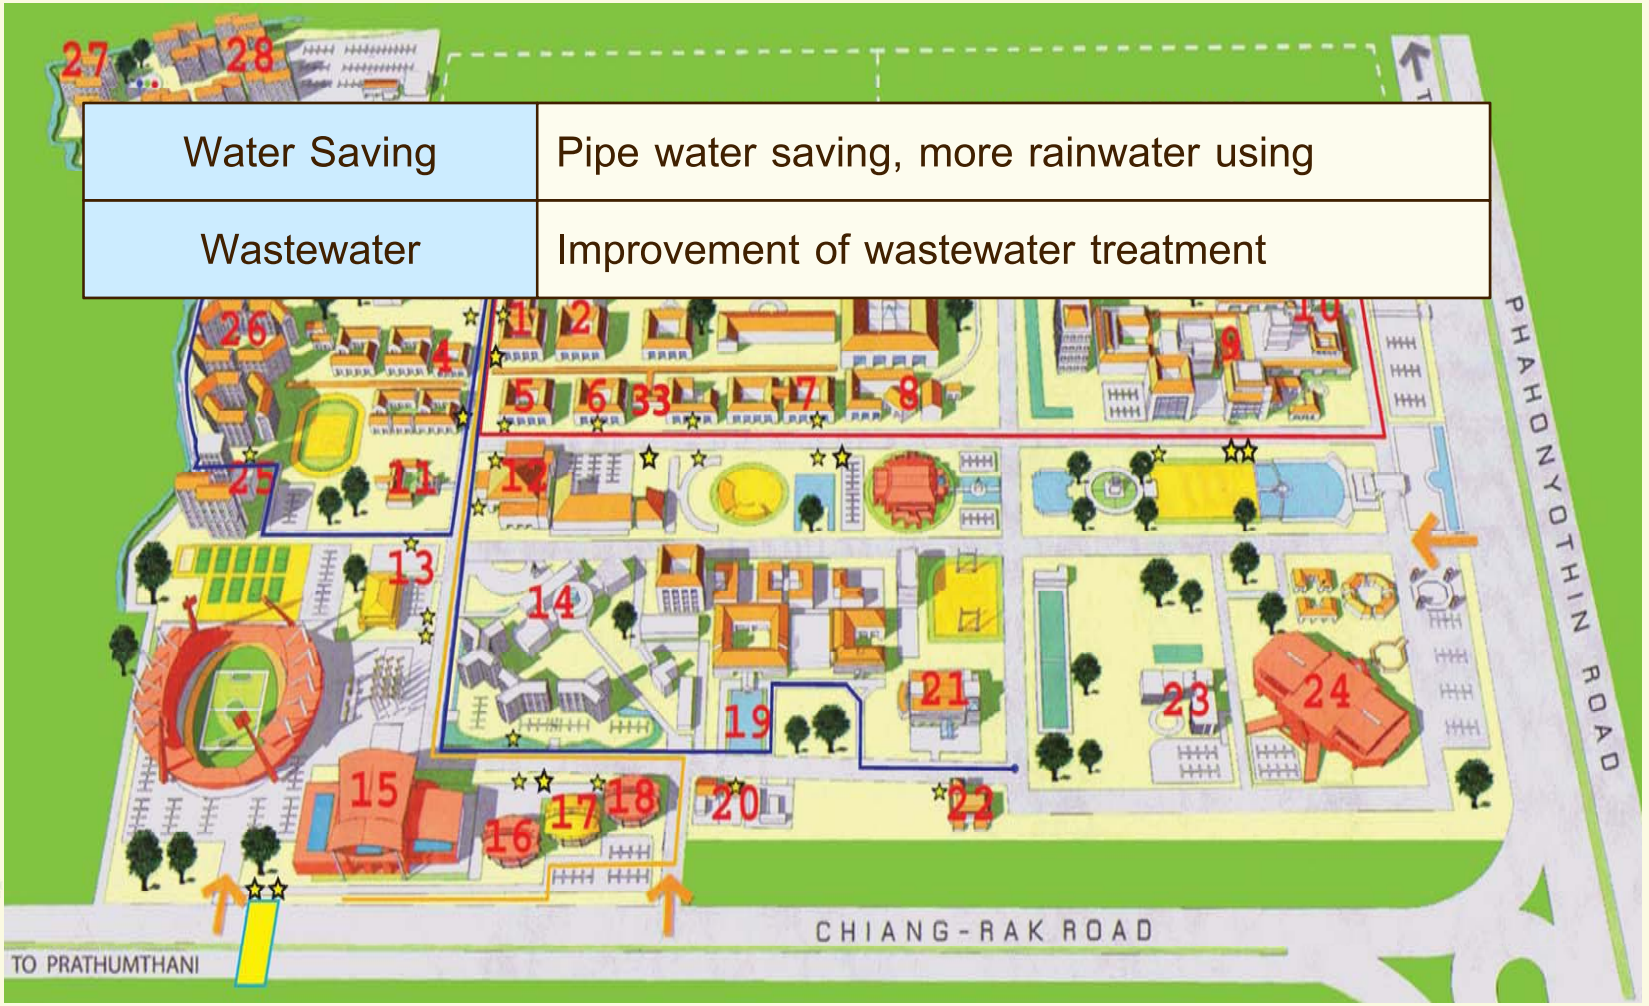
New Buildings	Thai Green Building Institutute (TGBI) Standard
Old Buildings	Standard setting for the old buildings



Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(3) Waste Management

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(4) Water Management

Water Saving	Pipe water saving, more rainwater using
Wastewater	Improvement of wastewater treatment



Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(5) Low or Zero Carbon Transportation

"ปั่น" เพื่อ "เปลี่ยนแปลง"

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(5) Low or Zero Carbon Transportation

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(5) Low or Zero Carbon Transportation

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(5) Low or Zero Carbon Transportation

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(6) Green and Natural Areas

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(7) Food & Wellness

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(7) Food & Wellness

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(8) Education & Research

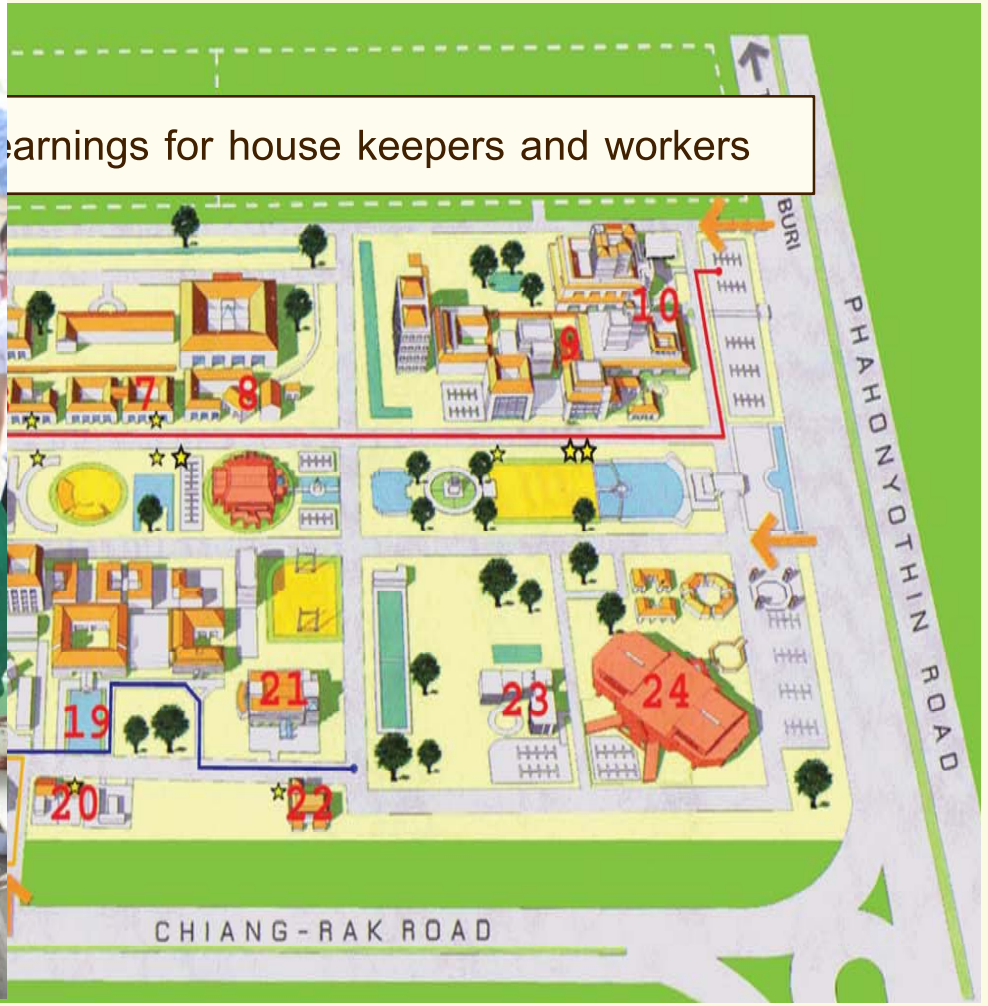
Education	“Citizen and Social Responsibility” subject

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(8) Education & Research

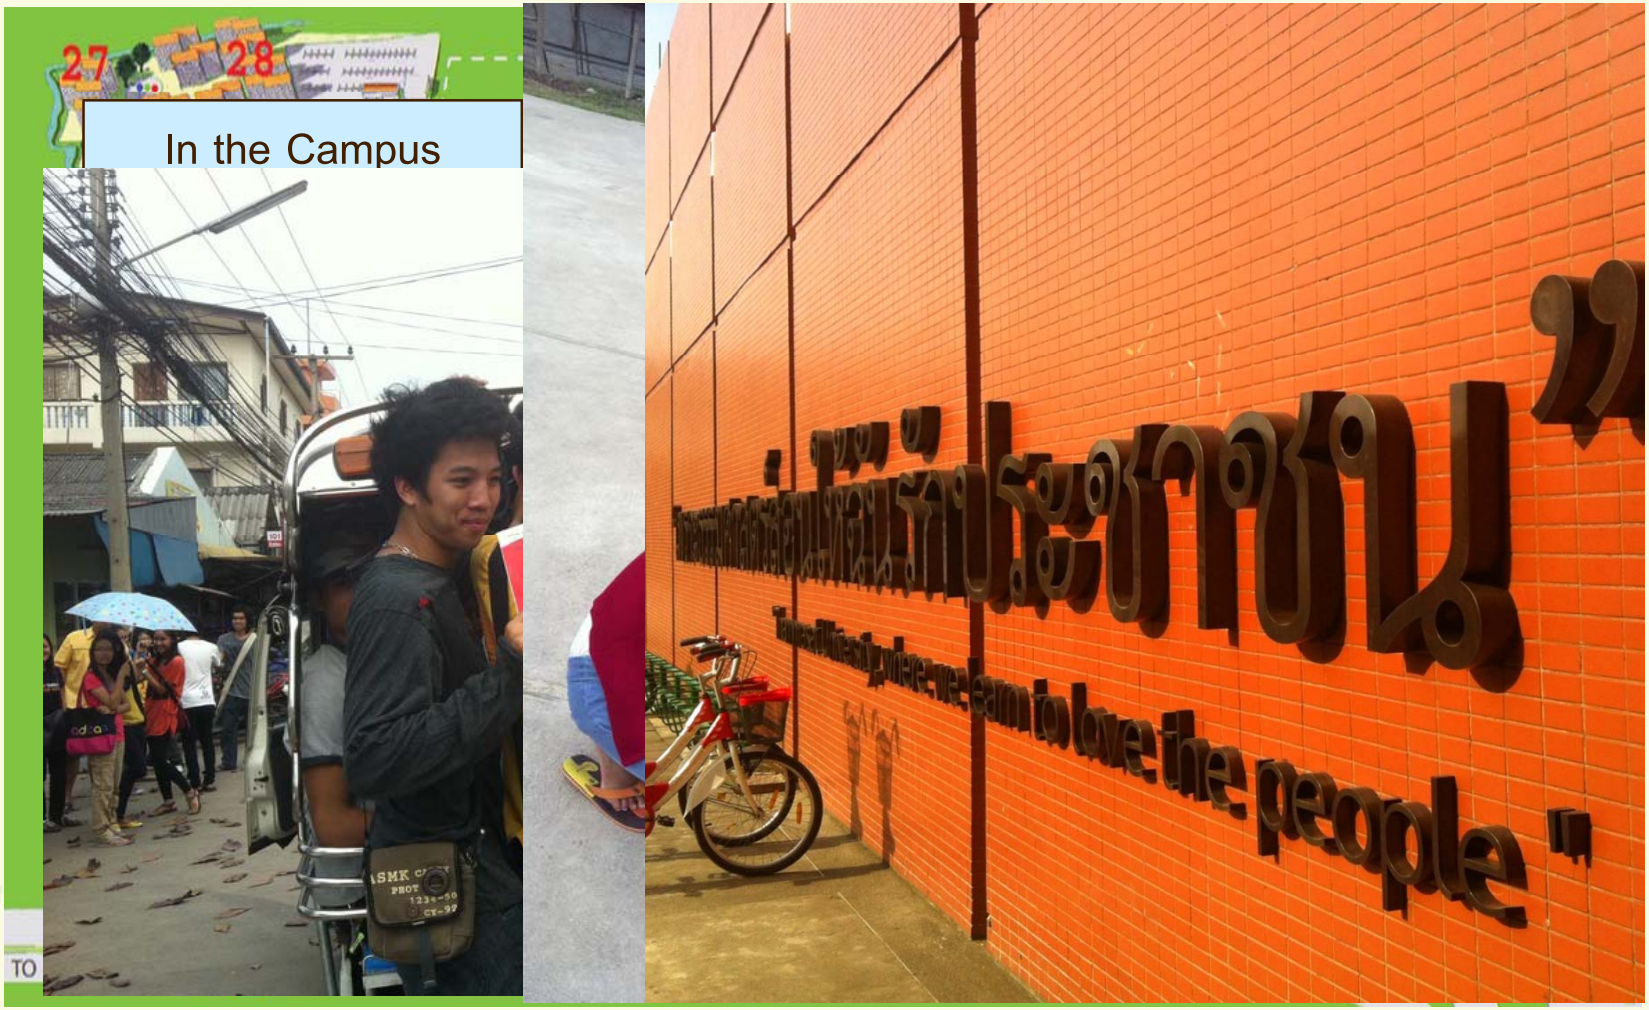
Education	“Citizen and Socia
	Subject about sus
Research	Support and foste

Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(9) Social Justice

earnings for house keepers and workers



Sustainable Campus Action Plan:
(9) Social Justice



And the next ISCN conference in this year …

ISCN 2015: Expanding the Dialogue

Expanding the Dialogue: Sustainability in a Connected World

June 17 - 19

Hosted by:

The University of Hong Kong

ISCN